

Sustain4Future Incubator

Expert consultations at the Faculty of Economics and Finance

Have an idea? Give it direction.

Launching a startup? Want to test an innovative idea or develop your entrepreneurial skills?

The Sustain4Future Incubator offers consultations with experts from the Faculty of Economics and Finance at Bratislava University of Economics and Business. We will help you clarify your idea, test key assumptions and identify practical steps towards making it a reality.

From customers and business models to finance, digital solutions, sustainability and project funding.

Choose an expert and get in touch

The attached table lists our experts, their areas of expertise, consultation hours and email addresses.

We recommend contacting your chosen expert by email first.

Briefly describe your idea or plans and tell us what you need help with. You can then arrange a consultation together.
