

Deadlines for submission of applications

(e.g. change/modification of dissertation topic, addition of a subject to the study plan, change of the language of the dissertation, etc.)

Applications from PhD students are accepted:

- until 05.01.2026
- until 24.04.2026
- until 01.06.2026

and are forwarded to the Programme Board and subsequently to the Subdisciplinary Committee for discussion by the relevant deadline.

The application is written and signed by the doctoral student and the supervisor's statement and signature are also included on the application.

The application is addressed to the Dean, Prof. Ing. Erika Pastoráková, PhD.

The doctoral student delivers the application to the Department of Science and Doctoral Studies.

The application for change/modification of the dissertation topic states the title of the original dissertation topic, the new dissertation title and the reasons why you are requesting the change/modification of the dissertation topic.

The application must be accompanied by a completed form (according to the programme of study) confirming that the new/modified topic has been discussed at a departmental meeting or with the PhD student at an external educational institution. Form: Economics - Annex to the application for change/ modification of the dissertation topic, can be found in the downloadable documents.